David.... I understand the importance of completing the ECA sign-off and have been doing my level best to move the Agency Review along as quickly as possible. As you know completing the Agency Review and signature by the AA involves many steps. We presently expect these FR notices will publish by the end of June.

Rich:

Can you provide more details? Have the two packages been signed by Susie Hazen yet? If not, what is holding up the show?

Please note that more than idle curiosity is behind my questions on this subject. UDRI is holding "slots" for us, and won't do so indefinitely.

Thanks.

How about a status report on where the Agency is with this? My troops are getting restless. Thx.
